

HOW TO COMMENT ON THE FEDERAL REGISTER

1

WHICH PROPOSED RULE?

Find a proposed rule you want to comment on or a topic area you are passionate about

GO TO REGULATIONS.GOV

Search for the proposed rule through a variety of methods:

- Blue search bar
- By category (10 total)
- Browse by comment period
- "What's Trending"

2

ADVANCED SEARCH

3

Search by keyword, docket ID, type of document, date range for comment period, date range for post date, or search by agency

CLICK PROPOSED RULE

Follow the instructions on the screen:

- "You are commenting on" it will say the administrative agency and name of rule
- Click "Open Docket Folder" to get more information and documents pertaining to the proposed rule

4

DRAFT COMMENT AND UPLOAD

5

Whether you voice your support or opposition for the proposed rule, provide scientific data to support, anecdotes, or other related statements and information. Upload your comment and any additional files or enter it in the space provided

REVIEW AND SUBMIT

6

Once your comment and supporting documents are uploaded, you will be taken to "Your Preview" page to edit or confirm what was uploaded on the page before. Next, hit "Submit Comment" on the bottom right and a receipt of your tracking number information will be provided